Day 03 — Nosy Komba & Nosy Tanikely Marine Park

Accommodation: Nosy Be | Meals Included: Breakfast, Snacks & Dinner

The day begins with a short boat cruise across the turquoise waters to Nosy Komba, often called Lemur Island. Covered with lush forest and traditional villages, the island offers opportunities to encounter Madagascar's famous lemurs along shaded trails, while the small fishing settlement reveals the rhythm of daily Malagasy coastal life.

The journey continues by boat to Nosy Tanikely Marine Park, one of the most celebrated marine reserves in the region. Surrounded by clear waters and vibrant coral reefs, the island is a natural aquarium where colorful tropical fish thrive among the corals. Snorkeling reveals a remarkable underwater world, and with a little luck, graceful sea turtles may glide through the reef gardens.

Return to Nosy Be in the early afternoon. The remainder of the day remains at leisure, allowing time to relax along the palm-fringed shores or enjoy the tranquil island atmosphere.

Day 04 — Excursion to Nosy Iranja

Accommodation: Nosy Be | Meals Included: Breakfast, Snacks & Dinner

An early departure by boat leads along the scenic Malagasy coastline toward Nosy Iranja, one of the most beautiful island formations in northern Madagascar. After a leisurely cruise across the turquoise waters, the twin islands emerge on the horizon, fringed by brilliant white beaches and swaying coconut palms.

At low tide, a long ribbon of white sand appears, connecting the two islands and creating a striking natural sandbank. This pristine stretch of beach is also known as an important nesting ground for sea turtles. A walk through the small fishing village offers glimpses of traditional island life, while the path to the lighthouse reveals sweeping views across the surrounding lagoon and coral-studded waters.

A freshly prepared lunch featuring local ingredients is served in a relaxed seaside setting, capturing the flavors of the region. Time remains to enjoy the tranquil beaches and crystal-clear waters before the return boat journey to Nosy Be in the late afternoon.

Day 05 — Sakatia Island & Turtle Lagoon

Accommodation: Nosy Be | Meals Included: Breakfast, Snacks & Dinner

A short morning boat ride leads to Nosy Sakatia, a tranquil island known for its clear waters and rich marine life. The excursion begins at the famous Giant Turtle Lagoon, a natural sanctuary where sea turtles are often seen gliding gracefully through the shallow turquoise waters.

The surrounding lagoon reveals a vibrant underwater world shaped by coral formations and tropical fish, creating ideal conditions for snorkeling. Encircled by lush vegetation and quiet coves, the island retains an atmosphere of unspoiled natural beauty.

A local snack break is enjoyed before exploring more of the island's serene coastal landscapes. Time remains for another refreshing swim in the clear waters before returning to Nosy Be.

The afternoon remains at leisure to enjoy the relaxed rhythm of island life.

Day 06 — Discovery of Nosy Be Island

Accommodation: Nosy Be | Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

A comprehensive island tour reveals the cultural and natural highlights of Nosy Be. The journey begins in Hell-Ville, the island's lively main town, where the colorful market displays tropical fruits, spices, and daily produce reflecting the rhythms of Malagasy life.

The exploration continues to some of the island's sacred landmarks, including the revered sacred tree and a hidden sacred waterfall, places long associated with local traditions and beliefs. These sites offer a glimpse into the spiritual heritage that remains an important part of Malagasy culture.

Lunch is served in a relaxed setting, featuring fresh local ingredients and regional flavors.

In the late afternoon, the route ascends to Mount Passot, the island's highest viewpoint. From this vantage point, a remarkable panorama unfolds across crater lakes, forested hills, and the surrounding islands scattered across the Mozambique Channel. As the sun slowly descends, the landscape is bathed in warm golden light, creating one of the most memorable scenes in northern Madagascar.

Day 07 — Nosy Be to Antananarivo

Accommodation: Antananarivo | Meals Included: Breakfast & Dinner

The morning remains at leisure in Nosy Be, allowing time to enjoy the tranquil island atmosphere before departure. Later, transfer to the airport for the domestic flight back to Antananarivo.

Upon arrival, transfer into the city with time for shopping for Madagascar's distinctive local produce. Markets and specialty shops in Antananarivo display a remarkable range of artisanal and natural products reflecting the island's rich agricultural heritage.

Madagascar is renowned for producing some of the world's finest vanilla, prized for its deep aroma and complex flavor developed through careful hand-pollination and sun-curing. Locally crafted chocolates, made from Madagascar's high-quality cacao, are celebrated for their rich, fruity notes that reflect the island's unique terroir.

A variety of fragrant spices can also be found, including cloves, cinnamon, and the distinctive pink pepper — a delicate, mildly sweet spice harvested from wild pepper trees and often used in gourmet cuisine. Jars of baobab honey, gathered from bees that forage among the blossoms of Madagascar's ancient baobab trees, offer another rare specialty known for its light floral taste.
