Day 02 — Lokobe Reserve

Accommodation: Nosy Be | Meals Included: Breakfast & Dinner

The day begins with a journey to the coastal village of Ambatozavavy, where traditional Sakalava pirogues await for the crossing to Lokobe Reserve. Gliding across the calm waters of Ambatozavavy Bay in these wooden boats offers a glimpse into the traditional maritime life of the island's coastal communities.

Landing at the reserve reveals the last remaining primary rainforest of Nosy Be. A guided walk through the dense tropical forest introduces the remarkable biodiversity of the region. Among towering trees and fragrant vegetation, the forest shelters lemurs, vividly colored chameleons, rare reptiles, and a variety of birdlife that thrive within this protected habitat.

After emerging from the forest, time is spent in the small coastal village of Ampasimpohy, where daily life unfolds quietly along the shoreline. A lunch featuring local Malagasy dishes is served in a relaxed village setting before returning to the hotel.

Day 03 — Nosy Komba & Nosy Tanikely

Accommodation: Nosy Be | Meals Included: Breakfast, Snacks & Dinner

A morning boat excursion leads across the clear turquoise waters to Nosy Komba, often referred to as Lemur Island. Covered in lush vegetation, the island is home to small fishing villages and forested hills where lemurs and other endemic wildlife can often be observed along quiet walking trails.

The journey continues to Nosy Tanikely Marine Park, one of the most renowned marine reserves in the region. Surrounded by crystal-clear waters, the island protects vibrant coral reefs that shelter an extraordinary diversity of tropical fish. Snorkeling reveals a colorful underwater world, often accompanied by sea turtles gliding through the reef gardens.

Return to Nosy Be in the early afternoon. The remainder of the day remains at leisure to enjoy the relaxed island atmosphere.

Day 04 — Excursion to Nosy Iranja

Accommodation: Nosy Be | Meals Included: Breakfast, Snacks & Dinner

A morning boat journey follows the Malagasy coastline toward the spectacular twin islands of Nosy Iranja, widely regarded as one of the most beautiful island landscapes in northern Madagascar. As the islands appear on the horizon, a striking ribbon of white sand emerges between them, creating a natural sandbank that links the two islands at low tide.

The surrounding lagoon reveals brilliant shades of turquoise and deep blue, while coconut palms line the pristine shoreline. The island is also known as an important nesting site for sea turtles, adding to its ecological significance. A walk through the small fishing village offers glimpses of traditional coastal life, while the path to the lighthouse provides sweeping views across the lagoon and surrounding coral waters.

A relaxed lunch featuring fresh local ingredients is served in a scenic seaside setting. Time remains to enjoy the tranquil beach and clear waters before returning by boat to Nosy Be in the late afternoon.

Day 06 — Discovery of Nosy Be Island

Accommodation: Nosy Be | Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

A full-day exploration reveals the cultural and natural highlights of Nosy Be. The journey begins in Hell-Ville, the island’s lively main town, where the colorful market reflects daily Malagasy life with displays of tropical fruits, spices, seafood, and local crafts.

The route continues to some of the island’s sacred natural sites, including the revered sacred tree and a hidden sacred waterfall. These places remain closely linked to local beliefs and traditions, offering insight into the spiritual heritage that continues to shape Malagasy culture.

Lunch is served in a relaxed setting featuring fresh local ingredients and regional flavors.

In the late afternoon, the road climbs to Mount Passot, the highest point of the island. From this vantage point, sweeping views extend across crater lakes, forested hills, and the surrounding islands scattered across the Mozambique Channel. As the sun descends toward the horizon, the landscape is illuminated by the warm colors of sunset.

Return to the hotel in the early evening.
